

Introductory Certificates in...

Team Leading

Acorn Training Consultants deliver this short, flexible programme for all team workers, especially those with current or prospective team leading or co-ordinating responsibilities. It meets the need for an introduction to team leading/ co-ordinating skills, and is equally valuable for improving the performance of all those who work inside today's teams by raising their awareness of the issues faced by their team leaders. It helps prepare these people to be the team leaders of tomorrow.

Introductory Certificate

Qualification

ILM Level 2 Introductory Certificate in Team Leading

Duration

40 hours including assessment and mini project

Structure & Content

- Short Induction / Tutorial
- 6 sessions/segments (Selected from the full certificate in Team Leading – minimum of one from each module overall)
- Assessment/ Tutorial
- Mini Project

Assessment

Knowledge Assessment of two short answer questions per session/segment

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements, but participants ideally should be working in teams or cells, though not necessarily in a leadership role, and have a background which will enable them to benefit from the programme.

Progression routes

- ILM Level 2 Certificate in Team Leading
- ILM Level 2 NVQ in Team Leading
- ILM level 3 Introductory in First Line Management
- ILM Level 3

How can I enrol onto the Introductory Certificate in Team Leading?

Discuss with your workplace Supervisor/Line Manager about your interest in the course and then ring us on 01773 747377, so that we can arrange an appointment to come out and visit you and your Supervisor at work.

How much will it cost?

In certain circumstances, we can deliver the training at no cost to you and your organisation, please speak to us on the number above this or about our commercial training rates or other funding opportunities.

